Dear Mr. Rauch:

Thank you very much for your kind letter of October 3rd. I am sorry that I did not get to see you at the Secretary's reception, but I got caught with a lot of business that day. I am most pleased that you enjoyed the conference, and I hope that you consider the time well spent.

With very best wishes, believe me,

Sincerely,

EXECUTIVE OFFICE

October 3, 1949

Rear Admiral R. H. Hillenkoetter, U.S.N.
Director of Central Intelligence
2430 E Street, N.W.
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Admiral Hillenkoetter:

I am sorry I did not have the opportunity of talking with you further in Washington following Henry Benedict's splendid dinner party. I had expected that you were to attend Secretary Johnson's reception, but I can understand that with the Russian atomic bomb disclosure you must have had plenty to keep you occupied.

The Conference was a great success and I enjoyed every bit of it, particularly the day on the Carrier Roosevelt with most of the top officials and officers of the Military Establishment present.

I am deeply indebted to you for proposing me to the Secretary.

Sincerely yours

Executive Vice President

Dear Mr. Rauch:

Thank you very much for your letter of June 3, 1949. I have talked with the people in the Office of the Secretary of Defense and they have assured me that your name will be put on the list for attendance at a later meeting of the Joint Civilian Orientation Conference. I hope that you will enjoy the next meeting and to have the pleasure of seeing you when you are in Washington.

Sincerely,
